Mt. Airy News

Blessed is everyone that fearest the Lord that walketh in his ways, Psalms 128 chapter, first verse.

Rev. Wayne was the guest speaker for Sunrise Service at Mt. Airy Baptist Church. He preached from 28th chapter of St. Mathew - sixth verse. Subject - fear not for God is alive again. Everyone present enjoyed the message. May God bless the messenger and the message. The regular preaching service was held by our Pastor, Rev. H.W. Pryor at 11 a.m. He preached from 28th chapter of St. Mathew 18th - 19th verses. Subject - who is in charge here. It was a wonderful sermon; may God bless Rev. Pryor and his messages.

We were very glad to have so many visitors and friends to come and worship with us. Deacon and Mrs. Job Humbles were glad to have their daughters home for Easter from Washington, D.C. Also, Deacon and Mrs. Herman Megginson were glad to have their daughter and grandchildren home for Easter from Baltimore, Md.

The Sunday School pageant was held Sunday night at 7:00 p.m. with Mrs. Ora McCoy and Mrs. Odessa Booker directing. Mrs. Ora McCoy also sponsored the program. Deacon Edward McCoy was Master of Ceremonies. The title of the program was The Conquerors. The entire cast did a beautiful job and the program was carried out wonderfully. A large crowd attended the program. We were so happy to have so many visitors and friends from sistering churches to be with us to help witness such a beautiful program. Mrs. Mary Hudson, sister of Mrs. Ora McCoy, gave some highlights concerning the program. Deacon Percy Johnson, superintendent of the Sunday School, gave some encouraging remarks. The pageant was very inspiring and the scene was so beautiful. Closing hymn - reach out and touch somebody's hand with Benediction by Rev. H.W. Pryor.

When you kneel in prayer say a prayer for little Karen Johnson who will undergo surgery, requested by her grandmother, Mrs. Rosa Humbles. A prayer for the sick and shut-in everywhere.

What have I done today to lift someone's heavy load. What kind words have I said or did I pray that someone's burdens be lifted.

FIDELITY AMERICAN BANK NA

Dear Customers:

I have been employed by Fidelity American Bank in Appomattox for seventeen years. During this time I have learned that service is the key factor that sets one bank apart from the rest, and at Fidelity, we provide efficient service in a friendly, concerned atmosphere.

Service not only involves how a bank treats its customers, but also what it offers them, and here again Fidelity is a leader. Our savings plans pay the highest interest allowed by law, and we also offer trust, investment, and international services, just to name a few.

As I have worked at Fidelity, I have watched the growth and development of Appomattox, and I have realized how much a part our bank has played in this growth. I am proud to be part of an organization that offers real service and by so doing has a hand in helping individuals and businesses make our community a better place to live.

Visit our bank and give us the opportunity to serve you.

Sincerely yours,

June Chenault

St. Luke news

With the lovely day for Easter a large group of members, friends, and out of towners attended the regular preaching services at the St. Luke Baptist Church Sunday at 11:00 a.m. A nice lot attended Sunday School also.

Rev. J.E. Mclaughlin was present, but still improving from the illness for some weeks. He did not preach. Rev. Alvin Jones was also on the Rostrum, but Rev. Singletary was in charge.

The Sr. choir gave music for the Easter occasion after remarks of greetings Rev. Singletary began to speak text 1st Cor.16 44-49 . The new spiritual body after a prayer asking guidance from above he began to speak it was a great message dealing with death and the resurrection. Well taken.

Then communion was served. The offering for the day was good.

On the 5th Sunday, the Cornerstone Sunday School union met with the White Oak Grove Church School Rev. H.J. Hendrick is Pastor, Deacon J.D. Moore Vice President was in charge. Sunday school was enjoyed as taught by teachers of respective classes. The Vice President conducted an uplifting review. All seemed to take in the high points as brought out. All schools were represented there. As usual the youth program was a high feature to the occasion and enjoyed by all.

Rev. Hendricks was the speaker for the day. Text Hebrew 4-12th The Bible the book that calls this was a great message, food for thought.

On Saturday, April 5th many of the St. Luke members and many other friends attended the lovely wedding of Miss Shirley Marshall, the daughter of Deacon and Mrs. Samuel Marshall to Mr. Howard Harrington of Baltimore Md. The reception was held at the home of the bride. All was lovely. The cake was beautiful (a 3 tier kind). The groom's mother and his sister and her husband were guests of Mary Hamlette.

Aunt of the bride, Mrs. Harrington and her daughter and little granddaughter attended church at St. Luke on Sunday.

Miss Shirley Hubbard was a visitor with her mother, Mrs. Hubbard in Concord, Va. She also visited St. Luke services and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Canada. Visitors in the same home was their son, Alfred Canada and his wife and 2

JWC to sponsor paper drive

The Appomattox Junior Woman's Club will hold its annual newspaper drive at Triangle Shopping Center on April 12 and 19.

Club members will be there to assist on these two Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

This year, the club will also be taking magazines, but request that these be kept separate from the newspapers.

If because of illness or other extenuating circumstances you are unable to bring your newspapers, call 352-8639. If possible, the club will arrange for them to be picked up.

They also visited their grandmother, Mrs. Louise Canada Monday p.m. On Sunday Mrs. Myrtle Lipscomb and three children visited Mrs. Canada.

Hat Creek Baptist Church had sunrise service Sunday at 6 a.m. Rev. John West, the Pastor, was in charge. It was well attended.

The motto for the Senior Volunteer club of St. Luke is If a task is once begun, never leave it until it is done, be the job great or small, do it well or not at all. They happily look forward to going to Lynchburg Home and Hospital on Friday to do volunteer work for the in-patients.

A speaker has been provided to speak to the seniors on the March of Dimes. All senior citizens are asked to attend. They will meet at the St. Luke Baptist Church from 10 a.m. to around 1:00 p.m. The ladies are bringing a covered dish for the lunch. Time-place April 14. April 12th, the Emancipation program will meet at St. Luke Church time 10:00 a.m. Please come and add to this program.

Rocks

By CASSIE BALDWIN

Spring is really here, we can tell by the way the flowers are blooming and time to plant gardens if we want plenty of fresh vegetables.

The executive committee meeting of the association at Cullen Church at 8 p.m. Monday, April 7.

The Good Friday service was held at Rocks on Wednesday night of last week.

Cooperative Program Day at Rocks on April 20 at the evening service. A movie will be shown on the University of Richmond Associational V.B.S. Clinic at Liberty Church on April 21, 10 a.m. to noon and 7-9 p.m.

Mrs. Lockie Moore was in Charlottesville Monday and Tuesday of last week to see what they could do about her eyes. Her granddaughter, Nancy Louini took her.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shorter, Jr., of Columbia, S.C., spent the weekend here with the former and latter's parents. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Roach were overnight guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Williams of Waynesboro and grandson, Steve, on Thursday night returning home on Friday.

Glad to know Hughes Marks of Richmond, is back home from the hospital. May he have a speedy recovery.
